MILES PRAISES THE ARMY.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The annual report of Major General Nelson A.
Miles, commanding the army, was made public at the War Department today. It bears the date of October 17, 1899, and is extremely brief and formal in character. It announces the transmission to the Secretary of War of the reports of the department and staff commanders and makes a brief statement of the strength and distribution of the army, including the muster-out of the regiments, most of which details have already been published in the report of the adjutant general.

The report concludes with the following general statement:

The demand for troops for foreign service has been unusual and has been somewhat severe upon them, especially those of the regular army. Within the last eighteen months several regiments have been required to leave their stations in the extreme North, move to the islands of the West Indies, there engage in a campaign in summer, return to northern stations in the autumn and winter and move again to stations in the Pacific and engage in campaigns under the most difficult circumstances. Rarely in the service have troops experienced such unusual changes in climate as those above mentioned, yet under all circumstances and at all times the utmost loyalty, fortitude and faithful performance of duty have been manifested on the part of the troops. In nearly all engagements where the troops have been brought into contact with the enemy they have invariably acted on the offensive and not in a single instance have they suffered defeat. The intelligence, discipline and fidelity of both officers and men have been most commendable.

Owing to the additional and extraordinary expense placed upon officers while serving in the Philippine Islands, Cuba, Porto Rico and the Hawaiian Islands it is recommended that they be allowed the same percentage of the increase of pay that is now provided by law for the enlisted men.

It is also recommended that officers of the army with a creditable record, who served during the Civil War, shall be granted the same consideration concerning rank and pay as has been accorded officers of the navy by section 11, as approved March 3, 1899.

JAPAN AT PARIS.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 14.—Mr. Otsuka, Japanese Commissioner to the Paris Exposition, reached here today.
Speaking of the features of the Japanese exhibit, no win his charge, Otsuka says it will be composed chiefly of art work, in compliment to Paris' worldwide recognized status as the art center of Europe. Paintings are a very important feature, and embrace many of the greatest examples of the Japanese school, loaned by the Emperor and the wealthiest and most eminent collectors. All the exhibits have been passed upon by a jury of critics, chosen half from the leading journals and half from the art circles proper. The Japanese section, when complete, will be thoroughly representative of the painting, sculpture, lacquer, pottery, embroidery and bronze work of Japan, as well as its manufactures, products and other distinctive industries.

As to the probability of Japan becoming involved with her big neighbor, Russia, Mr. Otsuka speaks with qualification. There can be no doubt, he intimates, that the people of Japan are eager for an opportunity to teach the Bear a lesson. At the same time they realize they are not on the proper financial or military footing to attempt the task. It is hoped by the leaders of the nation that conflict will not be precipitated until the nation is prepared, but whenever the test of strength comes, as it is admitted it must eventually, Japan looks upon Great Britain as her firmest and closest ally, possibly hand in hand with the United States.
Before proceeding to Europe Mr. and Mrs. Otsuka contemplate visiting Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and other American cities. This will be a new experience to the lady in the kimono.
She has never before left the home of her birth.

MR. AND MRS. DEWEY.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Admiral and Mrs. Dewey returned to Washington from New York tonight. A Navy Department official met them and escorted them to the admiral's carriage, in which they were driven to the home on Rhode Island avenue presented to the admiral by the American people. The arrival of the distinguished couple at the station was unmarked by any popular demonstration. Their presence aboard the train became known during the trip from New York when they stepped from the train and walked to the carriage a number of the passengers followed and saw them safely off for home.
